

Company Profile

Shanxi Guangyu LED Lighting CO., LTD which locates in Yaomiao town, Linfen city, Taking up around 300,000 square meters, 58 million registered capital with more than 400 employees. GYLED has developed into a professional and national high-tech enterprise which has been focusing on the integration for research, development, designing, sales and installation of the high power light source and series products, meantime, GYLED has been undertaking the City Lighting project for design, construction and maintenance. Nowadays, our products have been selling all over the world, and becoming a super star in semiconductor industry.

The company is a certified ISO-9001 (Quality Management System) and ISO-14000 (Environmental Management System) company. All of LED lighting products passed the quality certifications of CE, RoHS, UL, GS, CCC, CQC, DLC, SAA and gained international market recognition.

The company has been got over 150 patents which are invention patent, utility model patent, design patent relying on advanced technology development.

Depending on the independent intelligent property right and continuous innovation, GYLED has been got More than 70 honors and qualifications, it not only won the good market reputation, but also received the recognition from national department and industry association, and also it had won the industry's highest honor of China Lighting Award.

